CHICAGO - 360 CHICAGO is unveiling a new marriage proposal package in celebration of National Proposal Day on March 20. Couples are welcome to take their relationship to new heights with an unforgettable engagement at Chicago's landmark observation deck, located on the 94th floor of 875 N. The proposal package offers exclusive access to the deck's Merrill Semi-Private Event Space for a full hour, granting couples the best views of the city's skyline and the perfect backdrop for one-in-a-lifetime engagement photos. Located on the Southwest corner of the 94th floor, the private proposal space will be decorated with rose petals, candles and a "Marry Me" light up sign for the occasion. A high-top table with seating will also be available for the couple to embrace the moment, take in the views and enjoy a specialty cocktail.

"Planning a marriage proposal can be as nerve-wracking as planning a wedding," said Nichole Benolken, Managing Director of 360 CHICAGO. "We see dozens of lovely proposals at 360 CHICAGO every year, and this new proposal package can help take a lot of the pressure off the event, helping the new couple share this moment more easily with friends and family."

360 CHICAGO's events planners are available for consultation with the soon-to-be fiancées and families. The package is priced at $500, which also grants the newly engaged couple admission to the observation deck, a ride on TILT, Chicago's highest thrill ride, and specialty cocktails from CloudBar. For more information about the package and planning, please visit the website at 360chicago.com/tickets#events or email the team at info@360chicago.com.
